15.03: Regular Compensation

(1) During any period of active service subsequent to the effective date of 840 CMR 15.03(1) the term "regular compensation" as defined by M.G.L. c. 32, § 1, shall be determined subject to the following:

- (a) To be considered regular compensation, any compensation to an employee must:
 - i) have been actually paid to or on behalf of a member;
 - ii) be made as remuneration for services actually rendered, for recurring payments for accrued sick leave, or for payments made pursuant to G.L. c. 41, § 111F in the year or part of a year to which the compensation is attributed;
 - iii) be ordinary, normal, recurrent, repeated, and of indefinite duration;
 - iv) be made pursuant to an official written policy of the employer or to a collective bargaining agreement;
 - v) be made on a non-discriminatory basis and be generally available for employees who are similarly situated relative to the purpose of the payment (e.g. a longevity payment made recurrently to all employees in a bargaining unit having attained a specific length of service) provided that the ability of a payment to be denied due to merit shall not exclude it for that reason from regular compensation.
- (b) Regular compensation shall include any part of such salary, wages, or other compensation derived from federal grants, except as otherwise provided in M.G.L. c. 32, § 3(2)(a)(xi);
- (c) Lump-sum or retroactive payments which would have been regular compensation if paid in the periods in which the services remunerated thereby were actually rendered will be allocated to said periods rather than being entirely attributed to the time of receipt for the purpose of determining a member's regular compensation.

 - i) a member's annual rate of compensation as provided in an approved salary schedule;
